

DANCING DIVAS DANCE SCHOOL

Come 'n' Feel the beat

The Dancing Divas are an Indian dance group established by Bhuvana. They perform a fusion of classical, Bollywood, folk and western dance styles, presented with passion and exuberance, with the dances expressing joy and happiness

Bhuvana has always loved dancing and has developed her own unique style which is the inspiration behind the establishment of the Dancing Divas. She has been dancing since she was eight and was trained in a traditional style called Bharatanatyam. She is excited to be sharing her love of dancing and teaching skills with the Tasmanian community.

Dancing Divas School of Dance has teachers who are accomplished in classical dance (Bharatanatyam), folk dance, Bollywood style of dance and Western Dance. The teachers have several years of experience in training and performing at several events in India and Tasmania. As a student of the Dancing Divas school of Dance, you will be exposed to several dance forms.

Bharatanatyam

You will be initiated into the basic steps (adavus), which include leg movements, hand movements, neck movements and eye movements. Each set of adavus work on each part of the body and are performed in three speeds. Adavus are the basic framework of Bharatanatyam and once you attain proficiency in the adavus, you will progress towards learning the entire Margam.

Margam is the entire sequence of dances performed in a Bharatanatyam concert. Beginning with the Pushpanjali and moving towards Alaripu, the Margam has several items, which will need to be taught in a systematic manner.

Folk Dance/Bollywood/Western Dance

You will be taught folk dance styles from different states of India as well as Bollywood and Western style of dancing. Each class will include variety of songs and you will learn steps ranging from basic to more complex, leading you to be accomplished in all styles of dances.

Dance Your Way To Fitness

If you are looking to increase your fitness levels, this is a fun way to do it. We will teach you simple ways to improve fitness. Learn simple dance moves and
